PRESS RELEASE

The Québec City Community Christmas Hamper Campaign marks its 30th year!

Québec, November 1, 2025: The Québec City Community Christmas Hamper Campaign is now underway and is marking its 30th edition! Please help us to "deliver some goodness" by giving to this wonderful community initiative before December 20th in the following ways:

- Donate: Write a cheque, give cash, or donate online towards the $50,000 annual objective. Funds are used to buy fresh produce and other goods to supplement donated items. You can send a cheque by regular mail or donate online using our easy and secure online donation form. Try scanning our handy QR code.
- Food: Drop off non-perishable food at one of several sites around town, including at VEQ's Holiday Happy Hour at the Morrin Centre on Wednesday, December 4th. Check best-before dates before donating food. No expired, homemade, used or opened items, please.
- Volunteer: Help collect, sort, and pack food, and deliver the hampers to homes in need.

For details about how you can contribute, please visit qchampers.ca, send an email to give@qchampers.ca, or call Hamper headquarters at 418-684-5333, ext. 11835. Follow the Québec City Community Christmas Hamper Campaign's Facebook page to see how the community is supporting this initiative and share your fundraisers.

About the Campaign

Since 1995, the Québec City Community Christmas Hamper Campaign (qchampers.ca) has been delivering goodness to over 250 homes in the Greater Québec City region at Christmas time. The organizing committee of this huge annual initiative is composed of representatives from 18 organizations from the local English-speaking community. Heartfelt thanks to you—our donors, volunteers and numerous partners—for your unwavering devotion to this act of true kindness toward those in need.
